W&DBKA Swarm Collectors 2021

Do not contact a swarm collector before you have followed the instructions on our Swarms webpage and verified you have a swarm of honeybees.

We do not charge for collecting a swarm BUT a swarm collector can make a charge for time and travel expenses, so make sure you definitely have a swarm of honeybees before you call a collector.

Please contact one of the collectors directly OR go through the British Beekeepers Association's (BBKA) website to find a collector near you. There is a link to the BBKA on our Swarms webpage.
